Discover the charm of Mediterranean living in this beautiful three-bedroom, three-bathroom villa, perfectly situated in the sought-after beachside neighbourhood of Saladillo Benamara, Estepona. Nestled between Marbella and Estepona and just 200 metres from the golden sandy beaches of the Costa del Sol, this inviting holiday home offers the perfect combination of privacy, comfort and an exceptional coastal location. Surrounded by lush greenery and a beautifully maintained private garden, the villa captures the relaxed elegance of traditional Andalusian architecture, with its charming whitewashed exterior, warm Mediterranean character and welcoming atmosphere. Whether you are planning a peaceful seaside escape or an extended stay under the Spanish sun, this delightful property offers an idyllic setting to enjoy everything the Costa del Sol has to offer. Inside, the villa welcomes you with bright, comfortable living spaces designed for relaxation and effortless holiday living. The inviting living room features a beautiful traditional fireplace, creating a cosy atmosphere for cooler evenings, while the dining area provides a lovely setting for sharing meals with family and friends. The fully equipped kitchen offers everything needed for a comfortable stay, and the property comes fully furnished, with air conditioning and Wi-Fi for added convenience. The villa features three well-appointed bedrooms and three bathrooms, including two en-suite bathrooms, providing plenty of comfort and privacy for families or groups of friends. Thoughtfully arranged interiors and charming Mediterranean details create a warm, homely atmosphere that makes it easy to settle in and feel at home from the moment you arrive. Step outside and discover one of the villa's most attractive features: its beautiful private outdoor space. The sparkling swimming pool is surrounded by a lush garden with palm trees, greenery and inviting sunbathing areas, creating a peaceful retreat where you can unwind in complete privacy. Spend leisurely afternoons relaxing beside the pool, enjoy your morning coffee surrounded by Mediterranean greenery or gather around the outdoor dining table on the covered terrace for long lunches and relaxed evenings. The combination of a private swimming pool, charming garden and comfortable outdoor living areas makes this villa particularly appealing for those seeking an authentic Costa del Sol holiday experience. The location is another exceptional highlight. Situated in the desirable beachside area of Saladillo Benamara, the villa is just a short 200-metre walk from the Mediterranean Sea, allowing you to enjoy beautiful beaches, refreshing swims and leisurely coastal walks whenever you wish. Everyday conveniences are equally close, with Mercadona supermarket approximately 200 metres away and Bel Air Gym just 250 metres from the property. Sports enthusiasts will appreciate having Racquets Club Villa Padierna within a 10-minute walk, while a wonderful selection of local restaurants and beach clubs can also be reached on foot. The villa's position between Marbella and Estepona makes it an excellent base for exploring the surrounding coastline, from the glamorous marina, luxury boutiques and waterfront restaurants of Puerto Banús to the charming streets, traditional tapas bars and lively atmosphere of Estepona's Old Town. Combining the charm of a traditional Andalusian home with the comfort of modern amenities, this three-bedroom beachside villa in Estepona offers an exceptional opportunity to enjoy relaxed Mediterranean living in a highly convenient location. With its three bathrooms, private swimming pool, beautiful garden and easy walking distance to the beach, restaurants, shops and leisure facilities, the property is perfectly suited to guests looking for both tranquillity and accessibility. Whether spending sun-filled days by the pool, discovering the beautiful beaches of the Costa del Sol or enjoying unforgettable evenings with loved ones, this charming villa provides a wonderful place to create lasting memories in southern Spain.
