A serene countryside home designed for unhurried living This spacious country house is available for long-term rent, offering tranquillity, generous living spaces and an open natural setting. It is an ideal home for those seeking a calmer lifestyle, where comfort and everyday practicality go hand in hand. The property is set in a peaceful environment with open views across the surrounding landscape, creating a sense of space, privacy and connection with nature. A setting that supports both relaxation and daily life, away from noise and distractions. The house is arranged over four bedrooms, providing flexible living options for families, home offices or guest accommodation. The communal areas are well-proportioned and functional, centred around a comfortable living and dining area with a fireplace, adding warmth during the cooler months. The fully equipped kitchen is designed for practical everyday use. Outdoors, the property features a private swimming pool, ideal for enjoying the local climate throughout much of the year, as well as a barbecue area well suited to outdoor dining and relaxed gatherings. This is a home without excess, focused on quality of life, balance and wellbeing, offering a harmonious blend of indoor comfort and outdoor space. The property is offered for long-term rental only, and reliable tenants with proven financial stability are required. For further information or to arrange a viewing, I will be happy to assist you.
