Best Sea Views in Mijas Pueblo - Renovated Single-Level Apartment with Private Garage There are homes with a view, and then there is this one, which quietly lays claim to what may be the finest sea views in all of Mijas Pueblo. From its sunny wraparound terrace the whole coastline opens up before you, the Mediterranean stretching to the horizon and the whitewashed rooftops of the village tumbling gently below. This is the kind of outlook you settle into with a morning coffee and find yourself still lingering over long after the cup has gone cold. Set within one of Andalucía's most beloved white villages, this fully renovated apartment offers something increasingly rare: true peace. There is no road noise here, only the soft rhythm of village life and the light that pours across the terrace from morning until the sun slips into the sea. It is a place to breathe. What makes it rarer still is how effortlessly it lives. You step in directly from the street, and everything unfolds across a single level, with no stairs to negotiate and no compromise on comfort. Inside, a bright modern kitchen, two generous double bedrooms and two beautifully renovated bathrooms are arranged with a sense of space and flow that makes the whole home feel calm and considered. The quality of the finishes speaks for itself; this is a property that has been genuinely cared for and is ready to be enjoyed from the very first day, with nothing left to do but move in. Then come the two details that seal it. A private garage, almost unheard of in the heart of the old village, brings the everyday ease of your own parking just moments from the door. And carved into the living rock below, a natural stone cave cellar waits to become whatever you dream of, whether a wine bodega, a cool and characterful store, or a hideaway with a story all its own that you will find nowhere else. The best views in the pueblo, blissful quiet, a sun-drenched terrace, single-level ease, beautiful finishes, a private garage and a cave with genuine soul. Homes that bring all of this together simply do not stay on the market for long. This may well be the one you have been waiting for.
