Puerto Banús

Apartment

This apartment is located in Alcazaba, Marbella – Puerto Banús, within the beachside area and close to the sea, the port, shops, restaurants, and transport connections. With a built area of 145 m², south orientation, and views over the garden and pool, the property combines a privileged setting with excellent condition and abundant natural light. The interior offers a living room, two bedrooms, and two bathrooms, including one en-suite bathroom. The apartment comes fully furnished and features a fully fitted and equipped kitchen, marble floors, fitted wardrobes, air conditioning, and glass doors that enhance the sense of space and brightness. Internet connectivity is also available through both Wi-Fi and fibre optic installation. Additional features include a private uncovered terrace, ideal for outdoor use, as well as access to a gated community with lift service and communal garage parking for one vehicle. The residence is positioned close to a children’s playground, the town centre, the port, and all everyday services, making it a practical and well-connected home in one of Marbella’s most established coastal locations.
