These kind of houses do not come for sale and this is the first time this unique property is available on the market at an exceptional price. It had been completely renovated in 2000 with new windows, kitchen floors and bathrooms and is while needing some modernizing today it is a solid well built villa in a prime position. Entering the property you have a split level lounge with a fireplace and a seating area and a separate dining area. There are 2 gated entrances to the property with a garage at the lower end and parking for 3 cars on the upper entrance as there is over 2000 meters of plot which is completely fenced and secure. You have plenty of space to put in a swimming pool if you wish and you will never be overlooked by anyone as this was one of the first houses built and being on a double plot your views and privacy are guaranteed forever. There is good access via a tarmac and country road and you can be on the golf course or the beach within a 10 minute drive down the hill.
