This stunning villa, offering complete privacy and a heated pool, is located in the exclusive Palo Alto area, nestled between Marbella and the charming Andalusian town of Ojén, just 10 minutes from Marbella's beaches. Newly built with an innovative, contemporary design, this self-sufficient home prioritizes both maximum comfort and energy efficiency. Exquisitely decorated with natural and warm tones, the interior is inspired by the surrounding landscape, seamlessly blending with the breathtaking views that serve as a year-round feature of the home. The villa's outdoor spaces rival those of the finest urban developments, featuring beautifully landscaped gardens with fruit and ornamental trees, a jacuzzi, a saltwater heated pool, a cozy fireplace, and a stylish chill-out area. Fully equipped for your stay, the property includes everything you need, from bath and pool towels to bed linens—just bring your personal belongings. The villa also offers a spacious garage for multiple cars and is pet-friendly. Available for rent from September to June, with a minimum stay of five months. During July and August, it is available at €2,500 per week, accommodating up to 6 guests.
