This beautifully reformed second-floor, south-facing apartment is located in the sought-after area of El Paraíso and is available for long-term rental. The property features a bright, open-plan living and dining area that opens directly onto a sunny south-facing terrace, creating the perfect space for relaxing or entertaining. The living room is spacious, tastefully furnished with brand-new furniture, and includes a cosy fireplace for the cooler winter months. The modern kitchen is fully equipped with all the necessary appliances, making it ready to move into immediately. Both bedrooms are generously sized, offering fitted wardrobes and easy access to the two bathrooms. Additional features include air conditioning throughout, an underground parking space, and a private storage room. This is an ideal home for anyone seeking a comfortable, modern apartment in a desirable location, close to golf courses, beaches, shops, and restaurants..
