Bright, contemporary and beautifully furnished, the apartment has a spacious open-plan living and dining area that opens directly onto a 42m² private terrace. It’s the perfect spot for morning coffee, lazy lunches or an evening glass of wine while enjoying views across the landscaped gardens, mountains, swimming pools and towards the Mediterranean. But what really makes this property special is everything waiting outside your front door. At Alcazaba Lagoon, you have access to an extraordinary 14,000m² turquoise lagoon surrounded by sandy beaches, sunbathing areas and tropical gardens. Spend the day paddleboarding, kayaking or enjoying the pedal boats, relax beside the water or simply soak up the sunshine without ever needing to leave the resort. There’s also a restaurant and lounge bar overlooking the lagoon, making it easy to enjoy breakfast, lunch, dinner or drinks without having to get in the car. The restaurant offers Mediterranean-inspired fusion cuisine with the lagoon as your backdrop. For those who like to stay active, the development also offers communal swimming pools, a fully equipped gym, outdoor fitness areas and coworking facilities, while the landscaped chill-out areas provide plenty of places to slow down and enjoy the surroundings. And despite feeling like your own private resort, you're just minutes from Estepona and the coast, with beaches, restaurants, supermarkets, golf and everything you need for an easy Costa del Sol lifestyle close by. Whether you're looking for a stylish holiday escape, a longer seasonal stay or simply somewhere that gives you that holiday feeling every single day, this apartment puts you right in the middle of it. Lagoon days. Sunset dinners. Beach mornings. Your own private terrace. This is Costa del Sol living done properly.
